

Employee

VERSUS

Entrepreneur

---

Invest in your child's future

---

An employee thinks about the work as the business.

An employee supports a solid structure as foundational to the business.

An employee focuses on what is his or her responsibility.

An employee is a doer first.

An entrepreneur knows the business supports the work.

An entrepreneur sees a fluid process as core to the business.

An entrepreneur focuses on interconnected responsibilities.

An entrepreneur is a planner first.